

General Motors Voluntary Report of 2013 Political Contributions

As part of its overall efforts to promote transparency for stockholders and others, General Motors is releasing its voluntary disclosure of corporate contributions for calendar year 2013. Included in this report are (1) contributions to section 527 organizations; (2) contributions to individual candidates for state and local office; and (3) portions of dues or similar payments to 501(c)(6) trade associations and section 501(c)(4) organizations, to the extent the dues or other payments equal or exceed $50,000 and are attributable to political purposes. In addition, links are provided below to the GM Corporate Policy on Corporate Political Contributions and Expenditures, as well as to obtain GM PAC contributions.

(1) Section 527 Organization Contributions

Republican Attorneys General Association	$35,000
Democratic Attorneys General Association	$10,000
Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee	$12,000
No contributions to "Super PACs" (i.e., No contributions to organizations that make independent political expenditures for the election or defeat of political candidates)

(2) Contributions to Individual Candidates for State or Local Office

None

(3) Portion of Dues or Similar Payments, to the Extent Dues or Payments Equal or Exceed $50,000, Paid in 2013 to 501(c)(6) Trade Associations or Section 501(c)(4) Organizations Which Were Used for Political Purposes as Identified by the Trade Association or Organization: In 2013, GM paid dues or similar payments of at least $50,000 to organizations recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as tax-exempt under either section 501(c)(6) as a trade association or section 501(c)(4) as a social welfare organization. The following is a summary of such portion of such GM dues or similar payments used or meant to be used for political purposes:

Alliance of Automobile Manufacturers	$6,800
Michigan Manufacturers Association	$130,000

GM's Policy on Corporate Political Contributions and Expenditures can be found on GM's corporate website: <http://www.gm.com/investors/corporate-governance/docs/GMPolicyCorporatePoliticalContributionsandExpenditures.pdf>

Details of employee contributions to the federal GM Political Action Committee (PAC) and the GM PAC's contributions to candidates, party committees and other PACs can be found on the FEC website: <http://www.fec.gov>

GM's voluntary disclosure represents every effort and intention to fully report all such contributions. However, given the scope and size of GM's operations and the variety of contribution channels, some contributions could be inadvertently omitted from this initial disclosure. If GM is made aware of additional contributions through its own review process,

General Motors Voluntary Report of 2013 Political Contributions

employees or by other means and sources outside the company, it will immediately disclose those contributions by posting a revised report.